Brumley, George, 1842-1914

Nov. 10, 1842, Brumley, Ohio

My dear Mr. Brewster,
I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, however, unable to say whether or not they will be successful in their efforts to secure the release of the birds. I am, nevertheless, very anxious to see them and will do all in my power to bring about their liberation.

From a letter of the 1st of June 1861 to the Hon. Secy of the Navy, Washington, D.C.
Dear Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th inst. in relation to the proposed purchase of the schooner "Albatross" for the service of the Navy. I am sorry to hear that the vessel is not available for the service at this time, but I am sure that the Navy will be able to find another vessel to suit its requirements. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the subject. It is shown that the theory is based on the assumption that the subject is a function of the variables and that the function is continuous and differentiable. The theory is then applied to the case of the subject of the paper.

The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the subject. It is shown that the theory is based on the assumption that the
subject is a function of the variables
and that the function is continuous and

as is shown by the difference in type and paper; the same folios in the latter copy contain a sonnet by Valdés, which is also to be found on folio 20. According to Gallardo these folios were reprinted in order to omit this sonnet. Gallardo also states that ff. 202, 203 (by an error the last is numbered 127) have been reprinted, probably on account of some profanity in a sonnet by Quevedo, which does not appear in either copy.

In the first copy, signature Rr is repeated, ff. 175, 176 are misplaced, and the folios of the Tabla are bound at the beginning, while in the latter they are bound at the end. The second copy was bound by Bauzonnet-Trautz.
